

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXI.

STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1903. 8 A M.

NO. 56

LIBERTY.

W. I. Godbey, of Peoria, Ill., is visiting his people in Casey.

G. R. Wilkinson was in Lexington and Paris visiting the stock markets last week.

Mrs. Dollie Coots and little girls are visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Ellis, in Owensboro.

Miss Evona Riggins, who is attending school, made her home a flying visit, at Evona.

Mrs. Sallie Humphrey and Miss Melissa Adams were visiting their old home at Mt. Olive.

P. W. Nanter, James Cowden and Ike Wilkinson, of this place, are now in business in Louisville.

Mr. E. P. Kidd is having the foundations of his barber shop laid between the Exchange Hotel and the Bank.

Mrs. Etta Wilkinson attended the funeral of her niece, Miss Stella Hudson, who died at Danville Friday of consumption.

Beckham day, Tuesday, was attended by a large crowd of democrats, republicans, women and children, and was a day long to be remembered by the democrats of Casey.

Hon. G. E. Stone and family left for Monticello this week, where he will locate. His many friends regret his leaving Casey, but wish him much success in his new home.

G. A. Thomas and family and W. S. Thomas, of Cass county, Missouri, who have been visiting here for the past month, returned home Saturday. They had been gone from Casey for 19 years.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

M. B. Eubanks bought of M. D. Surber, of Pulaski, a young jack for $210.

J. F. Cook and E. H. Beasley sold 80 Nebraska horses at Richmond Tuesday at $25 to $30.

Dan Patch went the half mile track at Lima, O., in 2:04, breaking the world's record.

FOR SALE.—12 extra good two-year old cotton mules. H. C. Baughman, Hustonville, Ky.

Three Berkshire boars, registered and ready for service, for sale. Mark Hardin, Stanford.

We have an order for yearling and two-year-old cattle. See us before you sell. Lutes & Co.

FOR SALE.—Five Polled Angus bull calves and 1,000 bales of hay. J. W. Baughman, Stanford.

FOR SALE.—Two good milk cows giving an abundance of milk. Look Box 161, Stanford, Ky.

McChesney won the Twin City Handicap at Sheepshead Bay. Waterboy, the favorite, did not start.

There were 300 cattle and 2,200 sheep on the Richmond market Monday. The former sold at 2 1/2 to 4c and the latter at 2 1/2 to 3c.

We will have a lot of Nebraska horses at the stock pens at depot Monday next, court day. See them. E. H. Beasley & Co.

Lutes & Co. shipped a car-load of hogs from Moreland which they bought at 5 to 5 1/2c. They will ship one from here this morning bought at 5c. They have 400 engaged at 5c.

At Mrs. N. J. Lawrence's sale yesterday yearling cattle brought $3.65; 2-year-olds $3.00 and big cattle 4 1/2c. Corn sold at $2.06 at the heap. Farming implements sold high.

Maj. Delmar, in an attempt to lower the record of Cresceus, 2:02 1/2, on the New York State Fair track, made the mile in 2:01 1/2. This is the fastest time ever made by a gelding on any track.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Hon. W. T. Ellis, of Owensboro, will speak at Danville next county court day.

J. Shack Firkin, while at work at Burnside with a foot ax, severed an artery in his leg.

Burrill Harris, a Boyle county farmer, is in jail at Somerset charged with selling whiskey.

Nearly 20,000 people attended the Somerset fair the four days. The smallest attendance was on Friday and the largest on Thursday.

Mrs. Whitt Rose is lying near death's door at her home near Middleburg, as the result of a briar scratch on her foot, which developed into blood poisoning.

At a conference of James Andrew Scott and J. A. Sullivan, attorneys, respectively for Dora Brock, and the Cassius M. Clay heirs at Richmond, the hearing was set for Sept. 29.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such a brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief.

At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

KINGSVILLE.

Elizabeth is the name of the beautiful little daughter who has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Di-neen.

The Canning Factory is in full blast. Over 11,000 cans were filled with tomatoes in one day. This promises to be the banner year for the Kingsville Canning Company.

Meessers John Howe and Mack Williams spent a few days in Somerset. Mrs. Belle Burgess, of Louisville, has returned home after a visit to relatives here.

Mr. Fred Burgess returned with her. Mrs. Rebecca McCarty, of Pineville, is the guest of her sons, W. L. and J. M. McCarty.

Mrs. Fannie E. Carey has been quite sick but is improving. Mrs. W. L. McCarty and son, have returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. Will Davis at Pineville.

Miss Dovie Sims has returned from Somerset. Our popular station agent, J. Howe, together with W. R. Cundiff, will leave soon for a Western trip.

Quite a number from here attended the Somerset fair. Your correspondent returned Monday from a pleasant visit to friends at Somerset. We took in the fair and had the pleasure of seeing Mr. S. M. Owens with a blue ribbon.

We also saw our "would-be but won't-be" next governor, Col. Morris Belknap. We couldn't hear him say anything during his speech and he certainly was not endorsed.

Everything is in readiness for the great G. A. R. reunion. The merry-go-round and the snake eater are on hand and the Crab Orchard band is expected.

J. M. McCarty, Dan Hester and others will run hacks and meet all trains. W. Kirk Boone (who speaks of the cheapest and the best as "that fly paper") is coming with a lot of "Hornets," which paper from now on is to be a regular institution.

M. F. Elkin, of Maccabee renown, was here last week and after organizing a lodge with the assistance of A. C. Sine, of Stanford, left for Somerset, where he was met with an automobile and taken to the fair grounds, where he mingled with friends and then left for Junction City.

Mr. Elkin made friends here of all whom he met. In fact he seems to be universally popular, which is not surprising with his humor, intellect and affable manners. It is rumored here that Mr. Elkin contemplates running for the State Senate and everyone agrees that Mr. Elkin is excellent material for that high position and we join his legion of friends in wishing him as complete success in his ambition to reach the Senate as he has attained in his present vocation as a Maccabee organizer.

MIDDLEBURG.

Born, to the wife of John Wheat, a democrat.

Don P. Bransom and Walter McKinney have entered A. and M. College, at Lexington.

Eld. J. Q. Montgomery preached at the Christian church Sunday and Sunday evening.

Rev. J. B. Ferrell is still engaged in a protracted meeting at the Ellensburg Baptist church.

Eld. J. Q. Montgomery closed a very successful meeting at Mt. Olive Saturday night. Quite a number of additions were made to the church.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church at this place Monday night, Oct. 12. The meeting will be conducted by the Revs. J. B. Ferrell and Geo. Baker, the latter of Burnside.

Mrs. Charles Montgomery, of Yosemite, is very low with typhoid fever and fears are entertained for her recovery. She was removed to the home of her father Monday, near Rich Hill, with the hope that she would be benefited.

Farmers in the lowlands are hoping that old Jack Frost will defer his first visit a few weeks, as there are hundreds of acres of corn in the bottoms in silk and tassel that would be ruined; otherwise, the corn crop in Casey will be a large one.

Tuesday was a glorious day for the Casey democracy and one of the largest political gatherings ever assembled in this county heard Governor Beckham at Liberty discuss the issues of the campaign. There were fully 1,500 people in town, nearly 900 of whom succeeded in gaining entrance to the court-house where the speech making took place. The Governor was well received and loudly applauded. Congressman Ollie James was in his happiest mood and made an excellent address.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

Has world wide fame for marvelous cures. It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment or balm for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Boils, Sores, Felons, Ulcers, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Chapped Hands, Skin Eruptions; infallible for Piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at all Druggists.

LANCASTER.

Hogs are high and scarce in this locality.

The graded school has enrolled 250 pupils.

The Methodists are rejoicing over the return of Dr. Pearce to the pastorate here.

Dr. J. M. Acton is laying a concrete pavement in front of his house on Lexington street.

The Christian Sunday-school here will join the Hubble Sunday-school in a picnic in that locality Saturday.

Hemp is now being cut and a two-third crop is reported. Tobacco raisers are also cutting the weed and say that it is good.

J. W. Sweeney sold his land in Adair county, known as the T. J. Smith farm, of 600 acres, to W. C. Smith for $4,000.

The suburban farm of 260 acres owned by Dr. H. C. Herring and Mrs. Susan Fisher was sold Saturday to Jas. I. Hamilton for $70 per acre.

J. A. Doty sold a car-load of export cattle to Richard Gentry at 4 1/2c. Jake and John Robinson bought a lot of feeding cattle at Buckeye for 3 1/2c.

A strip of road known as the Polly's Bend turnpike is being constructed in Lower Garrard; only 1 1/2 miles will be completed before the winter season.

The union Sunday evening services in vogue during the Summer have been discontinued and the various pastors now preach to their respective congregations.

Elder F. M. Tinder has returned from assisting Rev. J. T. Hawkins in a protracted meeting at the Indian Creek church, near Cynthiana, and reports an interesting revival.

It is reported that Mrs. Margaret Guiley, of this county, widow of the late Coley Guiley, is soon to be given the clerkship in D. R. Collier's office now held by Clay Miller.

Mrs. Mary Carrier, who was adjudged insane by the county court last week and ordered to the Lakeland Asylum, died in the county jail. She refused nourishment and had not spoken for several days.

Good pictures of the city council appeared in the Central Record. The following gentlemen compose the council: Judges Robinson and Hemphill, Mayor Kinnaird, J. Joseph, J. A. Beasley and E. W. Morrow.

The following delegates from the Christian church attended the C. W. B. M. and S. S. convention at Richmond: Mesdames R. E. McRoberts, E. G. Kauffman, W. R. Burnette and Wm. Gregory; Misses Sallie Elkin and Arnold.

Mrs. Theodore Wintersmith, of Louisville, is with friends here. Jesse Arnold and wife, of Lexington, were here with relatives. Miss Emma Myers, of Arkinda, Ark., is visiting Miss Sallie Myers.

Miss Bane West left Tuesday for Washington City. Earl Ward and Willie Fox Logan have entered school at Lexington. Miss Theo Hemphill entertained a few friends Tuesday evening.

Mesdames Glass and Scott, of Jessamine, attended the Mason-Haynes wedding. Miss Maggie Bright, of Stanford, is the guest of Miss Mary Thompson. Miss Maggie Tomlinson has returned from a visit to Louisville and Lexington.

Miss Sara Belle Minor has matriculated at Campbell-Hagerman College, Lexington.

The most brilliant marriage to occur here for some time was that of Miss Katherine Logan, daughter of ex-Circuit Clerk W. B. Mason, and Mr. Roy Asa Haynes, of Germantown, Ohio.

The ceremony occurred at 10 A. M. on Wednesday at the Presbyterian church, Rev. B. N. Faulconer officiating, assisted by Rev. C. M. Chumbley. The maid of honor, Katie Lee Denny, and the bridesmaid, Miss Edith Morrow were groomed in pink and carried pink roses.

The bride was attired in white and held a bunch of white roses. All three wore large picture hats. The groomsmen were Messrs. Lou Haynes, of Ohio, and Oscar Letcher, of Henderson. The ushers were Messrs. Sam Denny, Ed Walker, Louis Herndon, Harry Anderson, W. Adams and Dr. Farris.

The vocal music was rendered by Mrs. Julia Rogers and the bridal march was played by Miss Grace Kinnard. The groom was attired in a military suit, as he is a member of the faculty of the Miami Military Institute. A lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mason, after which the bridal party left for the Buckeye State.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hannah Scott, Mr. Scott and Mrs. Glass, of Jessamine, Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, of Hillsboro, O., parents of the groom, and Mr. West, of the same city, an octogenarian and grandfather of the groom.

What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at all Drug Stores.

HUSTONVILLE.

W. D. Bocker is off duty in the revenue business this month.

Miss Cora Peacock has returned from a visit to Dr. Bohon's family.

John Reed, of Moreland, has sold his livery business to Hardin Cochran, who will continue the business at the old stand.

F. P. Combest, of Casey, sold Myers & Lyon a large field of corn at $2 per barrel in the field and several tons of hay at $3.

Over 100 tickets to the Somerset fair were sold at Moreland last week. In addition to this, there were quite a number who drove through.

The Kentucky Supply Co., of Danville, for the past six months did a business of $108,000 and under the able management of our former countyman, H. C. Bright, will continue to succeed.

We are informed that Walter Vandersdale (Skinny) has rented the Mrs. Jenkins farm, near our town, on the Middleburg pike. He is contemplating taking a partner in his business during the coming winter.

Mrs. Hattie Bishop has gone home with Mrs. H. R. Oldson to Roanoke, Ala., to spend the winter. C. W. Adams has rented the Miss Mac Logan cottage on Main street and will move his family there next year.

W. W. Lyon sold Richard Gentry for Nels Morris 50 1,500-pound cattle at 5c for Oct. delivery. This was the best bunch of this kind of cattle, we think, in Lincoln county. John S. Goode sold to John Russell a pair of 2-year-old mules for $225.

A cabin belonging to John Steele Carpenter, in which he had stored about 200 tons of baled hay, was burned. The fire was discovered, but too late to save anything. It is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. No insurance. Mr. Carpenter has the sympathy of every law-abiding citizen in the community.

Len G. Edelen has a contract from a large manufacturer of boots and shoes in the East to paint upon the highways and byways of the State in first class style "Honest Mike," the "Mud-Splitter" and "Level Best" school shoes.

These goods have stood the crucial test for 20 years and where introduced are great favorites on account of their staying qualities.

The committee having in charge the buying of pews and furnace for the Christian church here has placed their order for same, which are strictly up-to-date and are to be installed within 60 days. While these much needed changes are in progress they should arrange a place for the organ and choir, that they may face the audience, as in all other well regulated churches. The singing would be much more effective and this would not prevent but aid any of the audience in keeping better time—the entire work would be better.

MATRIMONIAL.

Minton Luttrell, 20, and Miss Katie Padgett, 17, were married Wednesday.

Edward McAfee and Miss Fannie Van Lear, both of Mercer, will be married Sept. 23.

Sam W. Coffman, aged 20, and Miss Burnetta Yocum, 17, were made one at J. D. Long's.

A wedding which will be of interest to friends in Danville, will be that of Dr. Howard J. Mays and Miss Florence G. Payne, both of Frankfort. The marriage will be solemnized in October.—Advocate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bastin, of Ewell, announce the engagement of their handsome daughter, Miss Florence Bastin, to Eld. J. W. Hall, of Lexington Bible College. The marriage will occur in November.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

Sir Norman Lockyer, in an address before the British Association for the Advancement of Science asserted that Great Britain was falling behind Germany and the United States in education because of inefficient State aid, and compared the great sums expended for "sea power" with the small sums expended for "brain power."

The world's bicycle record, for women for 1,000 miles has been broken by Miss Sadie Knowlton, of Boston. She finished a circle of that distance in 96 hours and five minutes.

Three prisoners escaped from the Whitesburg jail.
